Recent research also indicates that airfares are particularly good at this time. Southwest had some particularly good fares. Another careful researcher found that Disney prices are at their lowest at this time of year. The speakers and the workshops are world class. The location is ideal. The fellowship will be enriching. ~ARE YOU THINKING OF A CHANGE IN MINISTRY?

Interim ministry is a way to continue to exercise your gifts, follow your calling, and use your accumulated wisdom and experience. Interim Ministries-ABC can provide a day of introduction to interim ministry on January 8, following Together in the Lord in Orlando, January 4-7, 2010. The cost is $60, which would include a box lunch and CEU credit. Your lodging costs would need to be extended by one day. If you would be interested in staying over one day to learn about interim ministry, please email Jamie Munro at James.Munro@abc-usa.org.

~WOMEN IN MINISTRY TASK FORCE

Rev. Holly Bean has agreed to serve as the Chairperson of the Ministers Council task force in support of Women in Ministry. Invitations are being sent to potential task force members and our intention is to have the first conference call by the end of November.

Somebody will, or should, ask, how does this task force relate to the task force being led by Dr. Mary Hulst? Our answer is we plan to relate very well. Our President, Alice Greene, and the chair of Ministers Council Task Force, Holly Bean, have been invited to serve on Mary's task force which should allow us to work collaboratively. Given the historical commitment of the Ministers Council to advocate for Women in Ministry, we want to stand ready to be supportive of Dr. Hulst's group in every way. At the same time, we want to offer our own distinctive voice to the cause.

The Ministers Council Task Force will serve a two-year term and focus on understanding the current landscape for American Baptist Women in Ministry, gathering together biblical and theological resources pertaining to Women in Ministry, and shaping strategies for advocacy.

~A BETTER WAY - A COMMUNITY OF MINISTERIAL LEADERSHIP - EXPERIENCE IT AT A MINISTERS COUNCIL COMMUNITIES OF PRACTICE WORKSHOP

Dr. Joe Kutter is offering workshops for ministerial leaders that are designed to increase the effectiveness of local constituent councils as they work to enrich the ministries of their constituencies. For more information or to schedule a workshop in your region contact Dr. Kutter at joe.kutter@abc-usa.org

SPONSORS: The American Baptist Ministers Council and one or more local Constituent Councils.

WHAT: A workshop designed specifically to enhance both the effectiveness of constituent Ministers Councils and the ministerial leaders they serve. To do this, we will use the insights of "Communities of Practice" leaders and literature.

WHY: We, who are called to ministerial leadership in the church of Jesus Christ, want to be both faithful and fruitful. To paraphrase the Ministers Council mission statement, we covenant together both to deepen our spirituality and to increase our effectiveness as leaders in Christ's Church.

WHO: Ministerial Leaders who are willing to participate in a community of learning, share their ministerial experiences, and learn from others.

WHEN: This process works best with an over-night retreat. Contact Dr. Joe Kutter at the American Baptist Ministers Council, Joe.Kutter@abc-usa.org, to schedule the retreat.

~OCTOBER IS PASTOR APPRECIATION MONTH

It can be really awkward for pastors to advocate Pastor Appreciation Month. So this paragraph is directed to the rest of us. I want to encourage, even urge, national and regional staff persons to help congregations to do those things that indicate the appreciation that they have for their pastors. Several years ago, the Ministerial Leadership Commission published a brief but excellent paper that offered concrete suggestions for demonstrating appreciation for pastoral leaders. The paper can be found at <http://www.ministerscouncil.com/documents/appreciationmlc08.pdf>

~WOMEN WORD – RESOURCE FOR WOMEN IN MINISTRY

Karen Pickler has created an excellent resource for women in ministry. We commend it to you. Click on the link to view it.

~BE TRANSFORMED FROM UNCHRISTIAN TO NUCHRISTIAN

Judson Press has released nuChristian: Finding Faith in a New Generation by pastor Russell E. D. Rathbun. In this response to the popular Barna Research book unChristian: What a New Generation Really Thinks about Christianity... and Why It Matters, Rathbun offers practical ideas for church leaders who seek to reach today’s young adults with a Christlike community that is transparent, holistic, loving, engaged, just, and humble. He invites us to move beyond statistics and defensiveness to hear a new generation’s critique and to be authentic about whom we are as flawed human beings saved by a gracious God. Shane Claiborne provided the book’s foreword. Makes a great source for a sermon series or small group discussion. Order your copy today!

~AMERICAN BAPTIST HISTORICAL SOCIETY IS HIGH AND DRY!

As you are probably aware, we’ve had a bit of excitement here in Atlanta the past couple days! Yes, the American Baptist Historical Society and the collections are perfectly fine.

Flash flooding in the Atlanta metropolitan area (a LARGE area) is actually limited to low-lying areas (at the bottom of hills) or near creeks and rivers (Chattahoochee is on the west side of the city, Yellow River is SE of the city) that overflowed banks. Douglas and Paulding counties, also in the news, are about 30 miles W & NW of the city center). ABHS and Mercer University are located in the NE corner of the city, just inside the 285 perimeter.

On September 24, the Board of Managers met for their annual Meeting. The Rev. Dr. Trinette McCray serves as president.

ABHS is now on Facebook! We’ve got a small photo gallery up of the kinds of items we hold in our collections. You can find our page and become a fan at <http://www.facebook.com/home.php?#/pages/American-Baptist-Historical-Society/134285254982>
