Epiphany of Our Lord

When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage.

- Matthew 2:10-11

The Bible doesn't mention the magi again or how exactly their encounter with Jesus changed them. We are left with room for us to ponder how Jesus' life will disrupt and enrich our lives in the new year.

EPIPHANY

It was a time of unveiling
The truth about America was laid bare
But opinions vary about what was revealed.

Was Lady Liberty ravaged or was it she who did the ravaging?
Was she desecrating the hallowed halls or was she desecrated?

Black and brown children already have opinions
For others, the dreams have become nightmares
Blinded by power, greed and ambition.

Yet for such a time as this

There is another epiphany
another revealing
The time is fulfilled
The Kingdom of God is here
Change your way of thinking believe

... that creation waits with eager longing
for the revealing of the children of God.
God is waiting too.

We are praying for you and your ministries in this tumultuous and dangerous time. Randy's poem above is just one example of the Spirit's stirring into voice. How and where are you uttering what you need? How do those utterances sound? Clear witness? Groans? Wrestling with holy messy questions? Who are the companions you trust, or you need, in order to bear faithful witness in our age?

What is God revealing? What is God calling you to help reveal?

Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was born on January 15, 1929. We will celebrate Martin Luther King (MLK) Day on Monday, January 18, the federal holiday that honors his life and legacy.

The Martin Luther King (MLK) Day of Service is observed as a "day on, not a day off." Dr. King's work calls us, all of us, to remember our neighbor. He spoke of a vision of a beloved community and preached a message of love. In his last speech, he said, "Let us develop a kind of dangerous unselfishness" and went on to speak about the parable of the Good Samaritan. This parable illustrates that being a neighbor is about how you act when a person is in need.

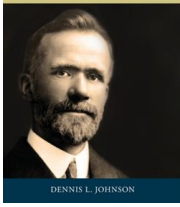

Have you considered how to spend the MLK Day of Service this year?

to share your thoughts by email or wait for the survey in the February newsletter.

CODE OF ETHICS

As reported in the December newsletter, a final revision of the Covenant and Code of Ethics was approved on November 19, 2020 at the Biannual Business Meeting of the Chapter Representatives and members of the Leadership Team. The next step is the ratification by 2/3 of our Active Chapters over the course of 2021. Please help us ensure each chapter is setting aside time for these deliberations. Members of the national team will continue to be available for presentation and "Q and A."

Also, we are establishing the editorial team for 2021 revisions to the current Learning Guide. (While ratification decisions are underway, we'll start on introductory sections and those not affected by the changes.) We seek a diverse and interdisciplinary team for this learning journey. To volunteer, contact Jacki Belile, National Vice-President, at jacki@livingwellministries.net by February 28, 2021. To review the approved document, visit www.ministerscouncil.com or email info@ministerscouncil.com.

"WE BELONG TO EACH OTHER"

A Theology of Dues?

Our beloved Chicago-area minister and mentor, Rev. Dr. Alan V. Ragland, said this at a Ministers Council dinner some years ago: "We belong to each other." He was speaking to the depths of ministers among ministers, ministers *serv*ing ministers.

A sense of belonging and shared commitment ideally animates all we do for excellence in ministry. Ideally, this belonging undergirds our desires to share and receive resources, to grow in wisdom, courage and compassion as leaders, to offer mutual guidance and accountability. Ideally, these bonds inspire us to share our time, talent and treasure in the variety of settings we are called to lead collaboratively, including the Ministers Council as one organizational form God still uses for blessing.

We're receiving dues now for the 2021 calendar. You can pay these affordable dues (on a sliding scale) conveniently online at www.ministerscouncil.com or through your local treasurer.

Let's dedicate ourselves with renewed passion for this common work, for such a time as this!

Staff Reflection

Reflect on This A Word from Lisa

For the past two years I have been submitting my thoughts on "reflections." I trust that they have been a source of inspiration and encouragement. Although each submission was woven with its own narrative, all shared the same common thread of "hope".

As we step over the threshold into the new year, my desire for you is a renewal of faith, courage, resilience, love and forgiveness. Faith to strengthen your relationship with God. Courage to aspire for all which you considered unattainable. Resilience to never, ever give up on yourself; and most importantly, show love and forgive.

I leave you with this encouragement from Philippians 4 v 13(KJV)- I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.
Wishing you God's favor in this new year!
