

PASTORAL REVIEW

The purpose of this form is to assist in the process of a frank and open discussion between the Pastor and the appropriate Board or Committee concerned with a continuing mutual understanding between Pastor and people. Mutual awareness and open discussion lead to greater understanding and partnership in Christian service. The form might be used every two to three years. An outside evaluator, clergy, lay or area minister could function as the evaluator.

Each of the following questions has the possibility of five responses: 1) Unsatisfactory; 2) Tolerable; 3) Satisfactory; 4) Very good; and 5) Excellent. Make a check mark over the numbered response you have chosen. Your response should be based on your personal knowledge and feelings as to how well the Pastor is doing.
