

Reckoning with Power: Why the Church fails When It Is on the Wrong Side of Power

Led by the Rev. Dr. David E. Fitch

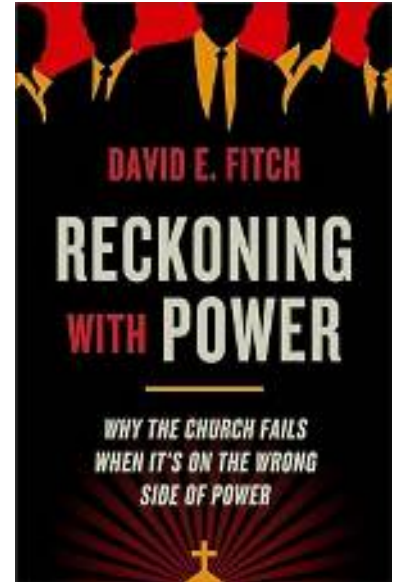

Thursday, April 18, 2024

5pm Pacific / 7pm Central / 8pm Eastern

Join us for the monthly "MC Live" gathering for American Baptist ministers and friends. We look forward to this conversation with the Rev. Dr. David Fitch, author of the timely book Reckoning with Power: Why the Church Gets it Wrong When It's on the Wrong Side of Power."

Dr. Fitch (PhD, Northwestern University) has pastored for 30 years, been involved in eight church plants over the course of his ministry. He is married to Rae Ann and they have one son named Max. He is an ordained pastor in the Christian and Missionary Alliance. He has coached hockey for the YMCA USA Hockey program for seven years. David teaches, speaks, and writes within the fields of Neo-Anabaptist theology, missiology, culture studies, political theory, and ethics.

He writes from time to time on his own page at Missio Alliance, on his substack, for Christianity Today, Outreach Magazine, ChurchLeaders.com, EthicsDaily, and multiple other sites, magazines and journals. He leads discussion on his facebook page (fitchest) and on X (formerly Twitter) at @fitchest. He is co-host of the "Theology of Mission" podcast.
