

Camp Ministry: How It is Evolving

May 21, 2026

5pm Pacific | 7pm Central | 8pm Eastern

Our guest speakers will be Amber Naylor and Melinda Parry from the ABC Metro Chicago region. The conversation will center around camp ministries, exploring how camp ministry is evolving, the challenges leaders are facing today, and the innovative ways God continues to move through these sacred spaces.

Amber Naylor is the Program Leader of the Creation Justice Network of ABCUSA and the Outdoor Ministry Coordinator and Regional Administrator for ABC Metro Chicago. She is an ordination candidate with Lake Street Church of Evanston. Amber founded the nonprofit Acting Out Awareness (AOA) in 2016, after her Peace Corps service in Panama, to continue storytelling-based community organizing. She has a Master of Divinity from Garrett Seminary and two Bachelor's degrees from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in nonprofit management. Amber is an Omaha native living in Chicago with her dog, Lyanna.
