

Breathing Room:

How to Manage the Demands of Ministry and Life without Wearing Out

This webinar will help you to create more space in your life this spring. It will help you begin to:

- Clarify your purpose.
- Identify your highest priority, given that purpose.
- Let go of what you will NOT do.
- Generate new ideas for making your purpose real.
- Identify who can help you make it happen.

The Rev. Margaret Marcuson helps clergy do their work without wearing out or burning out. She speaks and writes on church leadership, and works with church leaders nationally across denominations as a consultant and coach. Margaret is the author of Leaders who Last: Sustaining Yourself and Your Ministry and Money and Your Ministry: Balance the Books While Keeping Your Balance. An ABC minister (and Ministers Council member), Margaret was the pastor of the First Baptist Church of Gardner, Massachusetts, for 13 years. She now lives in Portland, Oregon, and is a member of the First Baptist Church.
